Essay

As churches have reopened, in-person attendance has unfortunately decreased. What are some ways the church can encourage people to attend in-person? What are your thoughts on physical presence at church and how can you use your witness to encourage people to attend?

The essay must be at least two pages in length, typed, double spaced and in 12-point font. Take this essay seriously! Plagiarism, failure to attribute factual statements and padding will detract from your overall scholarship application and award amount.

Your signature indicates that all of the information included in this application is true and accurate.
